

IMO/UNEP Workshop on Marine Pollution Prevention and Environmental Management in Ports in Eastern Africa
Mombasa, Kenya
26 – 30 April 2004

List of available presentations

Monday 26 April 2004, Session 2

Introduction to London Convention 1972 and its 1996 Protocol and Implications of Membership – Mr. René Coenen, IMO Office for the London Convention

Objectives and Structure of the Workshop – Mr. Craig Vogt, Chair of the London Convention Scientific Group.

Status of the MARPOL 73 / 78 Convention – Geraldine M. Maingi, Kenya Ministry of Transport and Communications.

The Nairobi Convention – Mr. Dixon Waruinge, UNEP.

The Regional Seas Programme - Dr. Ellik Adler, UNEP Regional Seas Programme.

Monday 26 April 2004, Session 3

Marine based Discharges – Mr. Jim Osborne, Consultant, Quebec.

Dredging of Ports and Marinas – Dr. Tom Fredette, US Corps of Engineers.

Management of Ballast Water Discharges – Dr. Lynn Jackson, Global Invasive Species Programme.

Development of a Port Ballast Water Management Plan – Captain Asiva Coopen, Mauritius.

Port Development and Environmental Issues in Port Louis Harbour – Mr. Shreenath Parahoo, Mauritius Port Authority.

French Polar Organisation – Mr. Dominique Bucas, La Reunion.

Integration of sustainability issues into Port Management using Strategic Environmental Assessment, Case Study: Port of Cape Town – Mandisa Mondli, National Ports Authority of South Africa.

Refuge-zone in crisis response - Mr. Dominique Bucas, La Reunion.

Pilot project on the potential use of Vertiver Grass in open constructed wetlands for marine pollution prevention: a local business development perspective – Melania M. Sengeu, National Environment Management Council of Tanzania.

Tuesday 27 April 2004, Session 4

Waste Management in Eastern Africa – Daniel Munga, Kenya Marine and Fisheries Research Institute.

Overview of Legal Frameworks for Marine Pollution Prevention in Eastern and Southern Africa – Mr. Akunga Momanyi, University of Nairobi.

Ballast Water Management in the Port of Saldanha, South Africa - Mirriam Tenyane, National Ports Authority of South Africa.

Environmental Aspects of Port Management – Mr. Philip DeCommarmond, Ministry of Environment and National Resources, Seychelles.

UNEP Feasibility Study on Sustainable Management of Marine Litter - Dr. Ellik Adler, UNEP Regional Seas Programme.

GPA Approach to Minimise the Impact of Port and Harbour Activities on the Coastal and Near-shore Environment – Dr. Ellik Adler, UNEP Regional Seas Programme (presented on behalf of the UNEP/GPA Office).

Tuesday 27 April 2004, Session 5

Introduction to Waste Management Principles – Mr. Craig Vogt, Chair London Convention Scientific Group.

Key Components of the Waste Assessment Guidance – Mr. Frans Tjallingii, Ministry of Transport, Public Works and Water Management, The Netherlands.

Waste Characterisation – Ms. Linda Porebski, Environment Canada.

Waste Management Options – Mr. John Lishman, US Environmental Protection Agency.

Selection of Sites for Disposal of Wastes at Sea – Dr. Chris Vivian, Centre for Environment Fisheries & Aquaculture Sciences, UK.

Case Study Experience with Dredged Material Management in the Netherlands - Mr. Frans Tjallingii, Ministry of Transport, Public Works and Water Management, The Netherlands.

Waste Management Guidance: the Permitting Process –Ms. Linda Porebski, Environment Canada.

Environmental Impact Assessment and Monitoring – Dr. Tom Fredette, US Corps of Engineers.

Efforts to Address Ballast Water Management in Kenya – Dr. Melckzedek Osore, Kenya Marine and Fisheries Research Institute.

Industrial Development and Waste Mngement in the Industrial Estate of Poudre Dor – Nashrin Soogun & Y Basant Rai, Mauritius.

Dumping of condemned/spoilt cargo and dangerous goods in the Port of Mombasa – Kenya Ports Authority

The South African Maritime Safety Association (SAMSA) and Pollution – Mr. Saleem Modak, SAMSA.

The Grounding and Sequential Refloating of the Sealand Express - Mr. Saleem Modak, SAMSA.

Thursday 29 April 2004, Working Group Sessions

Work Group 1: Dredged Material Management

Dredged Material Management in South Africa – Mr. Asanda Njobeni, Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism.

UNEP Coral Reef Unit – Dr. Stefan Hain.

London Convention Guidelines for Assessment of Dredged Material - Dr. Tom Fredette, US Corps of Engineers.

US Army Corps of Engineers Education Center – Molly Madden, US EPA.

Work Group 2: Sewage Treatment and Management of Sewage Sludge / Biosolids

Fundamentals of Sewage Treatment: Facilities and Processes – Mr. Craig Vogt, Chair London Convention Scientific Group.

Management of Sewage Sludge (Biosolids) - Chair London Convention Scientific Group.

Management of Sewage Sludge Disposal in Korea – Dr. Gi Hoon Hong, Korea Ocean Research & Development Institute.

Waste Assessment Guidance: Sewage Sludge – Dr. Chris Vivian, Centre for Environment Fisheries & Aquaculture Sciences, UK.

Work Group 3: Environmental Management of Industrial Waste

Industrial Waste and Wastewater Management Issues – Mr. Jim Osborne, Consultant, Quebec.
